

Europe-Middle East-Africa Chapter (EMEAC)
Movement Disorders Neurophysiology Teaching Course
May 15-17, 2026

Program Description: Dedicated to clinical neurophysiologists in training and neurologists who already have broad experience in routine neurophysiological techniques.

- State-of-the-art morning lectures exclusive for 40 participants with small group workshop to ensure hands-on focus for 2½ days.
- Networking with participants and speakers during dinners, breaks, and the social program.
- All participants will receive a certificate after having finished the course.
- Participants pay for their accommodation and travel.
- Participants pay a registration fee for the other expenses.

Registration Fee by World Bank Income Level <https://data.worldbank.org/>

- High-income countries: $800
- Middle-income countries: $500
- Low-income countries: $100

Between the talks, refreshments will be supplied. Lunch will be provided to all participants. All participants will be invited to one dinner (Gala dinner).

Venue: Aarhus University Hospital, Auditorium J 116-113, Entrance J , Palle Juul-Jensens Boulevard 99, 8200 Aarhus N

Aarhus, Denmark

COURSE: Friday-Sunday: The lectures are scheduled for 2½ consecutive days. Participation in the entire event is expected.

CAPACITY: Max 40 participants